For Immediate Release:

PREPARE TO BE BLOWN AWAY BY THE SUPERB LAYOUT, VARIETY, AND BEAUTY OF STONEHOUSE GOLF CLUB.

Stonehouse Golf Club in Toano, Virginia, was originally designed by one of the most innovative golf course architects in the business, Mike Strantz, a former protégé of Tom Fazio. Strantz' goal was to compliment nature so closely as to make the layout indistinguishable from Nature itself. This 18 hole, 7013 yard course is laid over wild, tumbling hills near the York River in the Tidewater Region. The natural beauty of virgin hardwoods thriving with wild turkey, deer, mountain laurel, and hollies provide the backdrop for spectacular golf in Virginia. With deep bunkers and wide fairways, the par 72 layout features dramatic elevation changes. Enormous greens perched on the edges of natural cliff formations offer constant challenges for any level player.

When the course opened in 1996, Stonehouse was named "Best New Upscale Public Course in the Nation" by Golf Digest and "Top 10 New Courses You Can Play" by Golf Magazine. In 2000, Stonehouse Golf Course was distinguished as one of the "Top 100 Public Access Courses" by Golf Magazine. In 2005, Golfweek Magazine awarded Stonehouse Golf Club the distinction of being "The Best Public Access Golf Course in Virginia".

In December 2018, Stonehouse 2.0 LLC was formed and bought the property. At that point, Stonehouse Golf Club was just a shell of its former self and had lost all of its earlier prestige. The greens, tee boxes, and fairways were all completely neglected and overgrown with weeds. Over the last three years, intentional care and purposeful improvements have enhanced Mike Strantz' original design. Surpassing its former glory, this gorgeous course is a must play.

From our customers:

Unbelievably great condition and one of the most fun courses. ~Jack Haskins

The course is simply fantastic!!! It is in great shape. Service was excellent. Each hole has its unique look and feel. You have done a wonderful job bringing one of the nicest courses back to life! ~Chris Marohn
